

THE OREGON WRITING PROJECT AT WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

*In an effort to determine the impact that OWP Inservice programs may have on participating schools, we ask teachers to complete the following survey. Information shared will be kept anonymous and used to reflect on current practice. Thank you for your time and efforts.

How much time do your students spend writing per day?

What types of writing does this typically include?

Do you believe your students enjoy writing in the classroom? Explain how you came to this conclusion.

How do you teach writing in your classroom?

How do students save and/or organize their writings?

Do students regularly use any form of peer evaluation, review, or editing? Describe.

Who are the audiences for the student writing?

Does your school have consistent expectations/instructional models for teaching writing? Describe.

Do you personally enjoy writing? How often do you write? In what context?

How many years have you been teaching?

What grade do you teach?
